

FCC is violating its mission and its trust. You are doing exactly the opposite of what the AMERICAN PEOPLE (Remember them?) demand of their media. The airwaves belong to the PUBLIC. The job of FCC is to enhance diversity, to oppose conglomeration, to provide educational material to our children, honest news about war and peace, poverty and wealth. This corruption must cease.